

The Seven Deadly Sins

“Those Things doth the Lord hate: A proud Look, a lying Tongue, and Hands that shed innocent Blood.”

— Jonas Clark (1730-1805) Minute Men Leader, Patriot Pastor at the Church of Lexington & Author

“Without morals a republic cannot subsist any length of time; they, therefore, who are decrying the Christian religion, whose morality is so sublime and pure...are undermining the solid foundation of morals, the best security for the duration of free governments.”

— Charles Carroll (1737-1832) Founding Father and Leader from Maryland

“As piety and virtue support the honor and happiness of every community, they are peculiarly requisite in a free government. Virtue is the spirit of a republic; for where all power is derived from the people, all depends on their good disposition. If they are impious ... all is lost.”

— Samuel Cooper (1725-1783) Pastor of the Brattle Street Church Boston, Pastor of John Hancock, James Bowdoin, and John Adams

“It is only what is written upon the soul of man that will survive the wreck of time.”

— Francis Grimke (1852-1937) Black Presbyterian minister & leader who helped organize American Negro Academy.
